EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The TB India 2023 report released by Prime Minister Narendra Modi recently shows that the country's targets for reducing the incidence of tuberculosis and fatalities due to it are far from being achieved. The country has made much progress in the fight against TB, but it still faces serious challenges. India accounts for over 30% of all TB cases in the world. The incidence at 196 cases per lakh population in 2022 is good progress from the 2015 figure of 256 but there may be questions even about the count. Many cases in rural areas and among the poor may have escaped notice.

Studies have shown that many people do not go for treatment even when they have symptoms of the disease. Going for self-medication has been found to be common. Treatment regimens are lengthy and many people stop it midway. This leads to more complications. The incidence of tuberculosis has a social and economic dimension also because many patients are from the poorer and backward sections of society. Most of them do not have access to nutrition which is needed to support treatment of the disease. There are other challenges like resistance to drugs. Some drug-resistant strains of TB are not amenable to treatment and the affected patients pass on the disease to other people. There are few facilities for isolation of such patients. Therefore, the new goals for dealing with the disease need to be supported by better efforts than seen till now. — In Deccan Herald

Don't let dogs in Public Parks

Sir,

I am one of the many senior citizens who are in the habit of taking a morning walk daily in the Park at Ramakrishnanagar 'I' Block. There is a person who brings two big dogs into the Park regularly and they are not in harness.

They roam around the Park freely, urinating and defecating, that too on the walking path. But, still he doesn't care for our requests not to bring them into the Park.

He says that they are trained and are harmless, but doesn't realise that the very size of the dogs put fear in the public, especially senior citizens like me. This may be happening in other Public Parks too.

Hence, I request the MCC authorities to give strict instructions to the person in charge of the Park, not to let such owners into the Parks with their dogs.

Fire destroys 50-60 acres of vegetation at Chamundi Hill

Suspected man-made incident; six fire tenders, 30 personnel battle for four hours to douse inferno

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (SBD,MTY& BCT)- A fire broke out at the foot of Chamundi Hill last night and burnt over 50 to 60 acres of vegetation. The Chamundi Hill — about 3,489 ft. above sea level — is spread across a vast area of more than 1,500 acres and is a home for rare biodiversity.

The fire was noticed first at the right side of the steps at around 5.45 pm on the foothill and even before the local residents, who spotted the fire, could alert the Fire and Emergency Services Department, it spread fast due to dry vegetation. There was a considerable wind speed last evening and this helped the fire to spread at a rapid pace.

The fire spread fast as the area is dominated by grasslands and the ground spread with dry twigs. Thick smoke billowed from the ground and the fire destroyed most of the vegetation in a vast area, killing small animals, reptiles and insects. Residents said that it took just 30 minutes for the fire to spread and reach upwards the Hill.

The Forest Department personnel said they struggled for more than four hours before the fire could be brought under control. "The presence of dry vegetation and shrubs provided fuel for the fire to rage. In all, six fire engines were pressed into service and over 30 personnel including the Police were involved in the operation. The flames were so huge that we could not go anywhere near the inferno. Somehow, the fire was doused by 10 pm," District Fire Officer H. Raju told Star of Mysore.

Suspecting that the fire was man-made, he said that some passer-by would have thrown a burning cigarette butt into the vegetation. "The summer is at its peak now and the vegetation has already dried with a bed of dry leaves and twigs on the ground. It is easy for the fire to spread. After the fire was extinguished, we had stationed one fire tender to prevent further damage," Raju added.

According to local residents, the fire was noticed at 5.45 pm and they thought that someone was burning dry leaves. "Soon, the fire spread and we alerted the Fire Department who rushed to the spot within 15 minutes. As the inferno was huge, six fire tenders were pressed into service. Even the Police teams cooperated and the fire was contained before it could cause more damage," said Savitha Ghatke, a resident near the foot of Chamundi Hill.

Diverse food cultures

This year in particular, a wide variety of delicacies have come from across the country, bringing about a diverse food culture. One of the most significant shopping destinations during Ramzan is the overcrowded Meena Bazaar where shoppers can find a variety of items from hairpins to various types of dresses and shoes, all at affordable prices. The market is also home to numerous shops and roadside vendors selling perfumes, caps, artificial jewellery, crockery and much more, all of which are in high demand.

Meena Bazaar's significance lies in its ability to bring together people from different communities, all of whom share a common interest in the festivities. The market is a bustling hub of activity, with vendors selling their wares alongside a diverse array of delicious street food.

Food trail and Iftar dishes

It is a season of delectable delicacies that can be enjoyed by people of all backgrounds. Mouth-watering dishes such as haleem from Hyderabad, a variety of samosas (both vegetarian and non-vegetarian), Kashmiri faluda, dry fruit sherbet, and a range of lassies are just some of the treats on offer during this holy month.

Exotic Middle-Eastern delicacies, including Arabian dessert, Arabian biryani, Arabian faluda and mutton samosas, among other dishes, are drawing food lovers to roadside vendors who have set up stalls and shops in Mandi Mohalla, Ashoka Road and Ramzan Food Mela, which has been organised for first time at Choultry on Shivaji Road, N.R. Mohalla.

The Iftar meal, which marks the end of the daily Ramzan fast at sunset, is an opportunity to savour a range of mouth-watering dishes, including delicious mutton curries, biryanis, irresistible desserts and refreshing sherbets — offering an array of gastronomic experiences that are sure to tantalise your taste buds.

Tantalising your taste buds

Indulging in some tasty snacks and refreshing juices is an essential part of the Ramzan experience in Mysuru. Here are some food stalls that are a must-visit during the holy month.

The mutton and chicken samosas are priced at Rs. 20 each while the vegetable samosa costs Rs. 12. There are several stalls selling Hyderabadi delicacies like haleem, Hyderabadi biryani and sweets. These dishes are a must-try and they are sure to leave you wanting more.

Juicy journey

After having delicious samosas, it is time to visit various juice shops selling nannari (sarsaparilla or sogade beru) juice, various types of faludas, dry fruit mix juice, kesar mix badam milk, milk badam faluda, Kashmiri kesar faluda and special kesar dry fruits khova lassi, which are season specialities.

One can visit Zam Zam Dry Fruits Centre, Mugliya Juice Centre and A1-Bombay Faluda Corner near Savoy Chowk which is offering nannari badam sherbet, badam lassi, nimbu cola and mirchi cola.

Shamsuddin, owner of Zam Zam Dry Fruits Centre, said that the shop is open between 4 pm and midnight every day till the eve of the Ramzan.

Perfumes, dresses, agarwood, wall hangings

Dubai Centre is a well-known shopping spot in Meena Bazaar which is popular for its imported perfumes and attars, watches, surma, wall hangings and other gift items. During Ramzan, this shopping hub is crowded with shoppers who come here to buy gifts for their loved ones. Apart from Dubai Centre, there are several other shops selling a variety of items like crockery, shoes, clothing and more.

There are shops that offer a wide range of dresses, including traditional churidar, sarees and kurtis. They also offer a variety of jewellery, including bangles, earrings, necklaces etc.

In addition to shopping and food, Ramzan also involves various charitable activities like distributing food to the poor. The community comes together to help those in need, making Ramzan a time of giving and compassion.

Poll security beefed up

While over 800 security personnel will watch over the city, the district limits will be secured by five Companies of CISF personnel. Eight more Companies of Para Military Forces will arrive soon in the district to man the 40 inter-district and inter-State check-posts in addition to District Armed Reserve and KSRP.

Route marches to dispel fears

Route marches, inspections, check-post vigil have already started and the route marches are being held at all areas irrespective of the sensitive nature of the booths/polling stations.

Last evening, the armed personnel conducted route marches on the H.D. Kote Road and Srirampura Ring Road Junction. Within the City Police limits, officers above Assistant Sub-Inspectors (ASI), Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP), Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP) and City Police Commissioner have been involved in the route marches and also the inspection of sensitive booths.

This morning, a team led by City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth and comprising Devaraja Sub-Division ACP Shanthamallappa, Narasimharaja ACP C.K. Ashwathnarayan, Krishnaraja ACP S.E. Gangadharaswamy and Vijayanagar Sub-Division ACP Gajendra Prasad visited the Hinkal Government School where a polling booth will be set up. They are also scheduled to visit cluster booths, sensitive and hyper-sensitive booths in the due course.

Superintendent of Police Seema Latkar and Additional SP Dr. B.N. Nandini too are conducting route marches in the district limits to instil confidence among voters. Yesterday, accompanied by para military forces, they visited the Yelwal village and interacted with villagers.

Critical, sensitive, hyper-sensitive booths identified

In addition to the security apparatus, home guards will also be put to use. Sources disclosed that the number of critical polling booths has also been identified. "Already, critical, sensitive and hyper-sensitive booths have been identified.

The vulnerability of a booth is determined keeping in view the community profile, earlier offences reported in the area, caste profile, etc. The Election Commission is already carrying out a vulnerability-mapping exercise," a senior officer said.

DC visits check-posts, H.D. Kote election office

Mysuru, Apr. 13 (RK&BCT)- To ensure maximum measures to ensure safe elections, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer, paid a surprise visit to Harohalli check-post near Jayapura and Kenchamalli check-post this morning.

While the Harohalli check-post comes under Chamundeshwari Assembly segment, the Kenchamalli check-post comes under H.D. Kote segment.

The DC sought information from the officials deployed at check-posts on arrangements in place to ensure free and fair elections. He issued suitable instructions to electoral officers and the Police on the maintenance of essential registers.

Asking the check-post staff to behave courteously with the public, Dr. Rajendra enquired about the basic facilities provided to them. "Inform people about stringent measures and maintain the incoming and outgoing records in a transparent manner. Alert the flying squad and static surveillance teams if there are any suspicious movement so that cases are immediately booked," he added.

H.D. Kote Tahsildar Mahesh Kumar and other officers were present. Later, Dr. Rajendra headed to the office of H.D. Kote Election Officer and sought information about electoral processes at Taluk level. He inspected the records of voter ID cards, new voters, postal ballot and other pre-poll arrangements.

Mysuru, Apr.13 (MK&BS) - A bike rally was taken out and street play was staged to create awareness on voting by the District and Taluk-level SVEEP Committee at various villages in Yelwal hobli on Tuesday.

The two-wheelers including Officers and Staff held placards with slogans on compulsory voting for building a strong democracy and went on a rally. The rally started from DMG Halli and passed through Kamaravalli, Seegalli, Nagawala, Yelwal, Gungralchatra, Yalachalli, Doddegowdana Koppal, Kallur, K. Naganahalli, Anandur, Chikkanahalli, Hale Unduwadi and Megalapura before concluding at Maidanahalli.

Later, a street play was staged at Maidanahalli to create awareness on voting.

H. D. Girish, Executive Officer of Taluk Panchayat, who kick-started the bike rally said, "The electoral process is to lay a firm foundation for building a strong democracy. Everybody should take part in voting on May 10 without falling prey for any allurements." To enable all to take part in the polling, required basic facilities have been made by Gram Panchayat at Polling Booths, said Girish.

WORD OF THE DAY

Foible

Pronunciation: FOY-bul.
Meaning: Foibles are minor flaws or shortcomings in character or behaviour. In fencing, foible refers to the part of a sword's blade between the middle and point, which is considered the weakest part.
Origin: Many word lovers agree that the pen is mightier than the sword. But be they honed in wit or form, even the sharpest tools in the shed have their flaws. That's where foible comes in handy. Borrowed from French in the 1600s, the word originally referred to the weakest part of a fencing sword, that part being the portion between the middle and the pointed tip. The English foible soon came to be applied not only to weaknesses in blades but also to minor failings in character. The French source of foible is also at a remove from the fencing arena; the French foible means "weak," and it comes from the same Old French term, feble, that gave us feeble.
Example: "Films about important historical moments are often marked by a heavy solemnity, a sometimes suffocating respectfulness that can make one forget that these events involved real people, human beings with passions and foibles." — Michael Ordoña

THE ODD WORD

Fanfaron

An empty boaster.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Fair dinkum

Meaning: Honest; genuine; fair play.
Origin: There could hardly be a more Southern Hemisphere expression than 'fair dinkum'. The phrase, which is hardly used outside Australia, conjures up images of horny-handed farm hands with corks on their hats. A 'fair-dinkum Aussie' is indeed what the locals call someone who embodies the nation's values. 'Dinkum' is a slang term that appears to have grown up with two meanings, 'work' and 'fair play'. These may in fact be drawn from one original meaning, that is, 'honest toil'. The 'work' meaning of dinkum is found in print in documents from both Australia and the UK in the late 19th century, the earliest being in the classic Australian novel Robbery under Arms, published by Thomas Alexander Browne, using the pseudonym Rolf Boldrewood, in 1888. It also appears in Sidney Addy's Glossary of Words Used in the Neighbourhood of Sheffield, 1891:
'I can stand plenty o' dincum.' This word is used by colliers at Eckington.
The 'honesty' or 'fair play' meaning is what people now mean by the phrase.
